

RUSTIC OAK BARNWOOD

The wood for all these items is made with antique reclaimed barn wood.

Early settlers hand hewed many beams and rafters for their out building structures.

Later structures were made of rough sawn wood cut in local mills.

This wood is kiln dried to ensure proper moisture content and also to eliminate any powder post beetles or other insect life.

This guarantees you receive a product that will resist warping or further cracking and also is insect free.